Job Title: Middle School History Teacher (Full-Time)

Calvary Christian School is dedicated to providing a holistic education that integrates biblical truth into every facet of academic and extracurricular programs. We are seeking an accomplished, dynamic, and mission-driven History Teacher to join our Middle School faculty for the 2025-2026 academic year. This pivotal role will contribute to our commitment to academic excellence, spiritual development, and a Christ-centered community.

Key Responsibilities:

- Demonstrated understanding and commitment to teaching history from a Biblical worldview
- Proven ability to collaborate effectively with school administration, teaching teams, and department colleagues
- Strong communication skills, with the ability to engage regularly and professionally with students, parents, peers, and the broader community
- Expertise in differentiating instruction to meet the needs of students with diverse academic abilities
- Competency in teaching students with wide-ranging academic abilities
- Proficiency in integrating technology as an instructional tool to enhance classroom learning
- Commitment to maintaining high standards of professional conduct and upholding the Christian mission and values of Calvary Christian School
- Enthusiasm and capability to contribute to school life through leadership or participation in co-curricular activities, such as class sponsorship, athletics, or school clubs

Qualifications:

- A master's degree is preferred. You must have expertise in your content area by having completed an academic degree that includes a strong background in American and World history.
- Experience in teaching middle school level history courses

- Experience and/or training in history instruction, including labs and inquiry-based learning
- Strong planning and organizational skills
- A Godly role model for students and a vibrant walk with Jesus Christ
- Maintain ACSI certification
