

A Pursuit of Excellence

Mastery of the coach and coaching staff includes:

1. Disciple Making
2. Conditioning
3. Student behavior management
4. Game management
5. Judgment
6. Student recruitment in Calvary and outside CCS
7. Resource management: facility and equipment care

What is required for Calvary to move to the next level:

Build an atmosphere of respect and reputation which supports individual and program wide discipleship efforts

1. Marry the pursuit of excellence with the pursuit of holiness

Recruit and hire experienced, driven coaches

1. Evaluation and accountability
2. Examples to the students
3. Ability to disciple young men by actions and words

Comprehensive Upper EL, MS and HS Program Continuity

1. The HC is the head of the whole program;
2. Every component of varsity program is evident in MS programs (and ultimately EL program)

Recruit and build awareness/respect for Calvary program in community of Calvary/Columbus

1. Intentional
2. Year-round
3. Varsity players @ MS events (football and non-football)

Strength and Conditioning:

1. In-season and out-of-season
2. High expectations
3. Tool to build esprit de corp

Media and Advancement:

1. Using CCS resources to intentionally promote football in social and traditional media

College program relationships:

1. Coaches on campus (clinics, etc)
2. Actively putting our students before coaches (videos, HUDL, personal intervention)

Playbooks and Practices:

1. Strategies which evidence advanced and innovative play calling
2. Extreme use of time with athletes:
3. Expect them to expect more out of themselves

Personal Growth:

1. Head Coach is actively improving himself through coaches clinics and onsite visits of other programs

Resources for football must increase:

1. Some from budget and admin; some from the fundraising and relationship of the coach with parents, alums, and community.
2. Some resources come from recruiting/utilizing parents.
